LEN SHAW WINNER AWARD

Mr. Nicol, Len Shaw, Bob Malone, Charles Stoutenborough, and John Gray, attended the eighteenth annual convention of the Illinois Association Future Farmers of America at Springfield, Friday, May 3. Len and Bob were the delegates from Maroa. Both received the State Farmer Degree. Len Shaw was chosen as the Star State Farmer and given $100 by the National F. F. A. Foundation. There are 11,000 F.F.A. members in Illinois. This is the highest degree given by the Illinois association. Len was also appointed to the resolutions committee.

Charles enjoyed watching the girls in one of the sewing classes at Springfield High.

Len stayed for the final session Saturday morning. He was elected Chairman of Section 13. The Maroa Chapter is very proud of Len and his Angus and Durocs. He also farms forty acres. Bob raises Angus and Berkshires.

CLEAN BANNERS!!

The Student Council (because of so many other activities) hasn't had very many meetings lately. The last meeting made up for lost time though. Plans were made for having the banners cleaned and they were taken down that afternoon. I'm sure everyone will agree that the gym is really going to look better with clean banners.

At noon on the day of the Jr. & Sr. banquet, all of the Jrs. were excused to go to Scovill's to decorate the hall. The rest of the school was dismissed at the end of 7th hour.

SKIP DAY

The Seniors held their annual skip day April 25. They left the High School about 8:30 and arrived in Springfield about 10:30. They spent about an hour going through the State House, Centennial Building, and the Governor's Office. At noon they ate at Strong's Cafeteria. After dinner they went to the bowling alley and then to the show. After a supper, consisting mainly of hamburgers, most of them started for home. One carload stayed and went to another movie and then stopped for awhile at a carnival on the way home.

Several eventful things happened during the day. Bob Malone got a ticket for parking too long in one place, but upon visiting the Police Dept. was greatly relieved because all he had to do was give them a nickel.

Dwight Allsup's car had no license plates but Duke got through all right and arrived home safely---several policemen sure looked at the car a long time but didn't say anything to him.

One of the girls who attended the Carnival got sick because they went on too many rides. In spite of these little annoyances, however, a swell time was had by everyone.

SENIOR TRIP TO MOUNDS

The Seniors went on a trip to the Mounds, Tuesday April 23, and also around to New Salem. They went in one of the school busses. They stopped at Havana for dinner. They didn't know for a while whether or not they would get to go because it had started to rain a little. Some of the boys bought red hats and sun glasses. I'm sure it was interesting and they had a lot of fun.

Dear Agatha,

Since this is the last issue I have plenty of good gossip for you.

We had the Junior and Senior Banquet last Friday night and it seems as though two of the girls, Barbara B. and Lucille G. had quite a conversation with the men in the orchestra. It seems like the girls wanted the men to take them home. I wonder if they did?

I wonder what happened to Jean W. and Jim R. Their places at the table had quite a large space between them. It could have been the seating arrangement.

The Junior boys sure go for the Sophomore girls. I saw Harold D., Wilfred R. and Milford G. were occupied by sophomore girls at the dance.

Miss Robertson looked as if she was floating on air at the banquet. That was because Ed came for the dance.

Several of the boys brought Argenta girls. John L. brought Jeanette H., Bill K. & L.C. brought Betty & Grace Van Fossan.

Some of the Sr. boys told D. Perkins that they were going "Stag" for the banquet but they didn't. Could that be Don's reason for not going?

I hear that John G. asked Lucille G. to the banquet. I wonder why she didn't go with him.

Miss Kelly had a nice looking escort also. Or was Miss Sanner's brother her guest?

There were some who had more fun after the Banquet and dance was over, and some who had trouble. I hear Joy M. and "Bugs" V. got side swiped. Neither one of them were hurt, except Joy had a stiff leg.

Dick Pinney is sure getting a teasing just because he took Dorothy Groeson home after the banquet. Do you think that is right?

The way the questionnaires tallied up sure were interesting. Be sure and look at them.

We would like to know what party was stalled(?) up Lover's Lane a while back. It is said the Navy had the situation well in hand.

I was sure surprised, Agatha, there was only one new couple at the banquet. That was Virginia D. and Dave K. The only thing wrong with that was, Dave only got to come to the dance.

This is the seniors last week, so I think we should wish them all "good luck"! don't you?

Well I have run out of gossip so I will gather up all I can through the summer and see you next year.

Love,

Little Audrey

JOKES

He-These shoes are noisier than my house slippers.

She-That's because they have tongues.

Lady in a pet shop---"I like that dog but his legs are too short."
Clerk---"Why Madam, all four reach the ground."

Pat-Boy, is that guy dumb!

Mike-Is that so, how come pray tell?

Pat-He thinks a football coach has four wheels.

Mike-Well, if that isn't silly---

Er-Ah how many wheels has a football coach?

Artist-I paint a picture in three days and think nothing of it!

Critic-Neither does anyone else.

Teacher-What is the purpose of this?

Bright Student-What?

Teacher-I said, What is the purpose of this? Don't you know what a purpose is?

Student-Sure, it is an Indians baby.

Teacher-A thousand germs can live on the point of a needle.

Bright Student-My, what a strong constitution.

Groping downstairs in his bare feet and pajamas, a sleepy husband sent to investigate a noise suddenly surprised an intruder looting the family jewels and silver ware.

"By jove, a real burglar! I say, old bean, will you wait a minute?"

"So's you can call the cops?" snarled the crook drawing his gun.

"Oh no, only to call my wife. She's heard you every night for 20 years, and I'm sure it will be a real pleasure for her to meet you at last.

"Your cough is very much improved this morning," said the doctor very cheerfully.

"You can give me the credit," the irate patient replied, "I've been practicing all night."

"Daughter has arranged a little piece for the piano," said Mother. "That's fine," commented father, "It's about time we had a little peace around here."

"Good morning," came the cheerful voice over the telephone, "This is Morrison, Morrison, and Morrison, Attorneys at law.

"Oh," came the startled reply, "Good morning, good morning, and good morning! Guess who this is?"

"Well my boy, I have good news for you, you are the father of a baby boy!" said the doctor.

"Sh-h-h-h" said the absent minded prof., "I want to surprise my wife."

GOSSIP

The banquet caused several couples to be noticed. Some of them were:::

C. Easley had a pretty good time with W. Ringo and V. Tolby didn't do too badly with H. Dunham either.

I noticed that R. Brown danced quite a lot with H. Moore and H. Mashburn. He didn't take either one of them home though. I guess he couldn't decide which one he wanted.

D. Pinney didn't get to sit by D. Greeson at dinner but he took her home. I wonder if she could be "Blondie."

Couples who wanted to dance, found the terrace much more crowded than the dance floor. I wonder..

I hear that D. Allsop, D. Glosser, B. Morris, Jack Hockaday, and D. Kidd went out after they took their dates home. Did you have fun boys?

All of the teachers were chaperones and there were more of them chaperoning(?) outside than anywhere inside.

Bugs and Joy were in an accident on the way home from the banquet. You should be more careful about driving, Bugs.

Joan M. didn't have to get her orchid from the Blue and Gold. Jerry K. got her one for the banquet. Nice going.

Virginia D. asked D. Kidd to the dance following the banquet. Could it be a new romance starting this late in the school year?

Joan Wikoff was with R. Patterson. Her little niece got her out of some trouble at home too. What was wrong, Joan?
